Report

The Department of Management successfully organized the Management Association Inauguration with the objective of enhancing leadership qualities among students. As part of the inauguration, students were assigned various executive roles such as Vice President, Treasurer, Secretary, and others, each carrying specific responsibilities related to finance, event coordination, communication, and administration. The association was formally inaugurated by Dr. P. Nandakumar, who also administered the swearing-in ceremony, officially delegating responsibilities to the student leaders. Dr. V. Kavitha, Head and Dean of the Department of Management, warmly welcomed the gathering and introduced the esteemed chief guest. Mrs. S. A. Dhanalakshmi, Vice Principal, delivered the presidential address, inspiring students to fulfill their roles with commitment and professionalism. In his address, Dr. P. Nandakumar captivated the audience by sharing his personal business experiences, offering valuable strategies and tips for starting a business, and revealing key entrepreneurial insights. He also engaged with the students in an interactive session, addressing their questions and encouraging innovative thinking. The event concluded with a heartfelt vote of thanks delivered by Dr. K. Radhamani from the Department of Management.
