Report

The Alumnae-2K25 interaction was a memorable event that brought together past students to share their experiences and inspire the current batch. Two distinguished alumnae graced the occasion and reflected on their transformative journey at PKR College. They expressed heartfelt gratitude towards the institution, particularly appreciating the dedicated faculty who played a significant role in shaping their academic and personal growth. They also highlighted the excellent placement opportunities provided by the college, which helped them establish successful careers. Sharing anecdotes from their college days, they emphasized how the comprehensive grooming they received at PKR College prepared them to face real-world challenges with confidence. Their insights served as a source of motivation for the students, showcasing how the institution's support and resources contribute to success. The interaction not only strengthened the bond between the alumnae and the institution but also inspired the students to strive for excellence.

Outcome of the Program:

- Highlighted the significant contributions of faculty to student success.
- Emphasized the value of placement opportunities provided by the college.
- Reinforced the importance of holistic development at PKR College.
