

Report on World Student's Day Celebration

P.K.R. Arts College for Women (Autonomous) celebrated World Student's Day on 14.10.2023 to encourage the talents and aspirations of our students. Ms. D.Sindhuja, II B.Sc. Computer Science, welcomed the gathering. The highlight of the event was the AI Elocution competition, where 29 students passionately spoke on the life and contributions of Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam and the significance of space research.

The event was graced by the presence of our esteemed Secretary, CEO, and Principal, who appreciated all 29 participants for their commendable efforts and knowledge. Their words of encouragement and support motivated the students to continue their academic journey with determination and passion. To recognize and reward the outstanding performances in the AI Elocution competition, prizes were distributed to the participants during a special assembly. In addition to the elocution competition, two students were also rewarded for their exceptional talent in drawing.

Dr.Senthamizhselvi, Assistant Professor of Tamil, delivered an inspiring speech on Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam's life and his unwavering dedication to space research. Her words resonated with the students, motivating them to dream big and strive for greater heights in their academic and professional endeavours.

Ms. Kokilavani from I M.A Tamil Literature spoke about Dr.Kalam, recounting his achievements and emphasizing the importance of his legacy. The speech was followed by a solemn oath, where the students pledged to carry forward Dr.Kalam's vision of a developed and empowered India through education and innovation. Ms.H. Deeksha, III BCA, proposed the vote of thanks.
