VISALI.B.K

OBJECTIVES

- To leverage my M.A. in Tamil Literature and passion for teaching to secure a Lecturer position, where I can inspire students, promote the richness of the Tamil language, and contribute to academic research.
- A dedicated Tamil scholar seeking a teaching role at an esteemed institution. Aiming to utilize my deep understanding of Sangam literature, modern poetry, and grammar to foster a strong cultural and linguistic foundation in students.

EDUCATION

- BA Tamil Literature – CNC College Of Arts and Science (2021-2024) – CGPA: 83
- MA Tamil Literature – PSG College of Arts and Science (2024 – 2026) CGPA: 80. Upto 3rd Semester

RESPONSIBILITIES

- As a dedicated Tamil Educator, my core focus is bringing the richness of our language and literature to life for my students. I design engaging, comprehensive lesson plans that bridge classical texts—such as Sangam literature and the Thirukkural—with modern contexts, ensuring the curriculum remains deeply relevant. Beyond everyday classroom teaching and evaluation, I actively mentor students in their academic research and dissertations to foster their critical thinking skills. I am also deeply committed to the cultural vibrancy of the campus, frequently organizing literary debates (Pattimandrams), seminars, and cultural festivals to instill a lasting pride and appreciation for our linguistic heritage."
